

Check out the Aurora Museum & Archives' On Location exhibition inside the Royal Rose Art Gallery at 15210 Yonge St.

While we wait for our permanent home in the Aurora Town Square, we will be hosting a rotating series of exhibitions to bring Aurorans closer to their Town's collection.

Visit the gallery to explore changing themes and objects, including our Spring exhibition focused on the theme of "Keeping in Touch". The displays will be switched bi-monthly, so hurry in to see each one before another exciting exhibition opens.

For information about the Aurora Museum & Archives, and to learn about our local history, please visit us online.

On our website you will find interactive e-books, information on treaties, watch short documentaries on Aurora's rich history and so much more.
